

6516206409.txt

I enjoy sat radio because of the quality of the content. No commercials and a product with a wide variety of programming. If local stations would provide this type of quality, then I would not need to spend 10 dollars a month. Make the local stations compete, don't let NAB dictate what happens in the radio industry. My family won't forget how you proceed and handle this issue.